For Construction

Use these drawings for field construction. Remove from use all other previously issued drawings which have the same sheet number but have an alphabetical or lesser numerical revision number. Be sure to give a set of these drawings to the affected subcontractors!

Note:

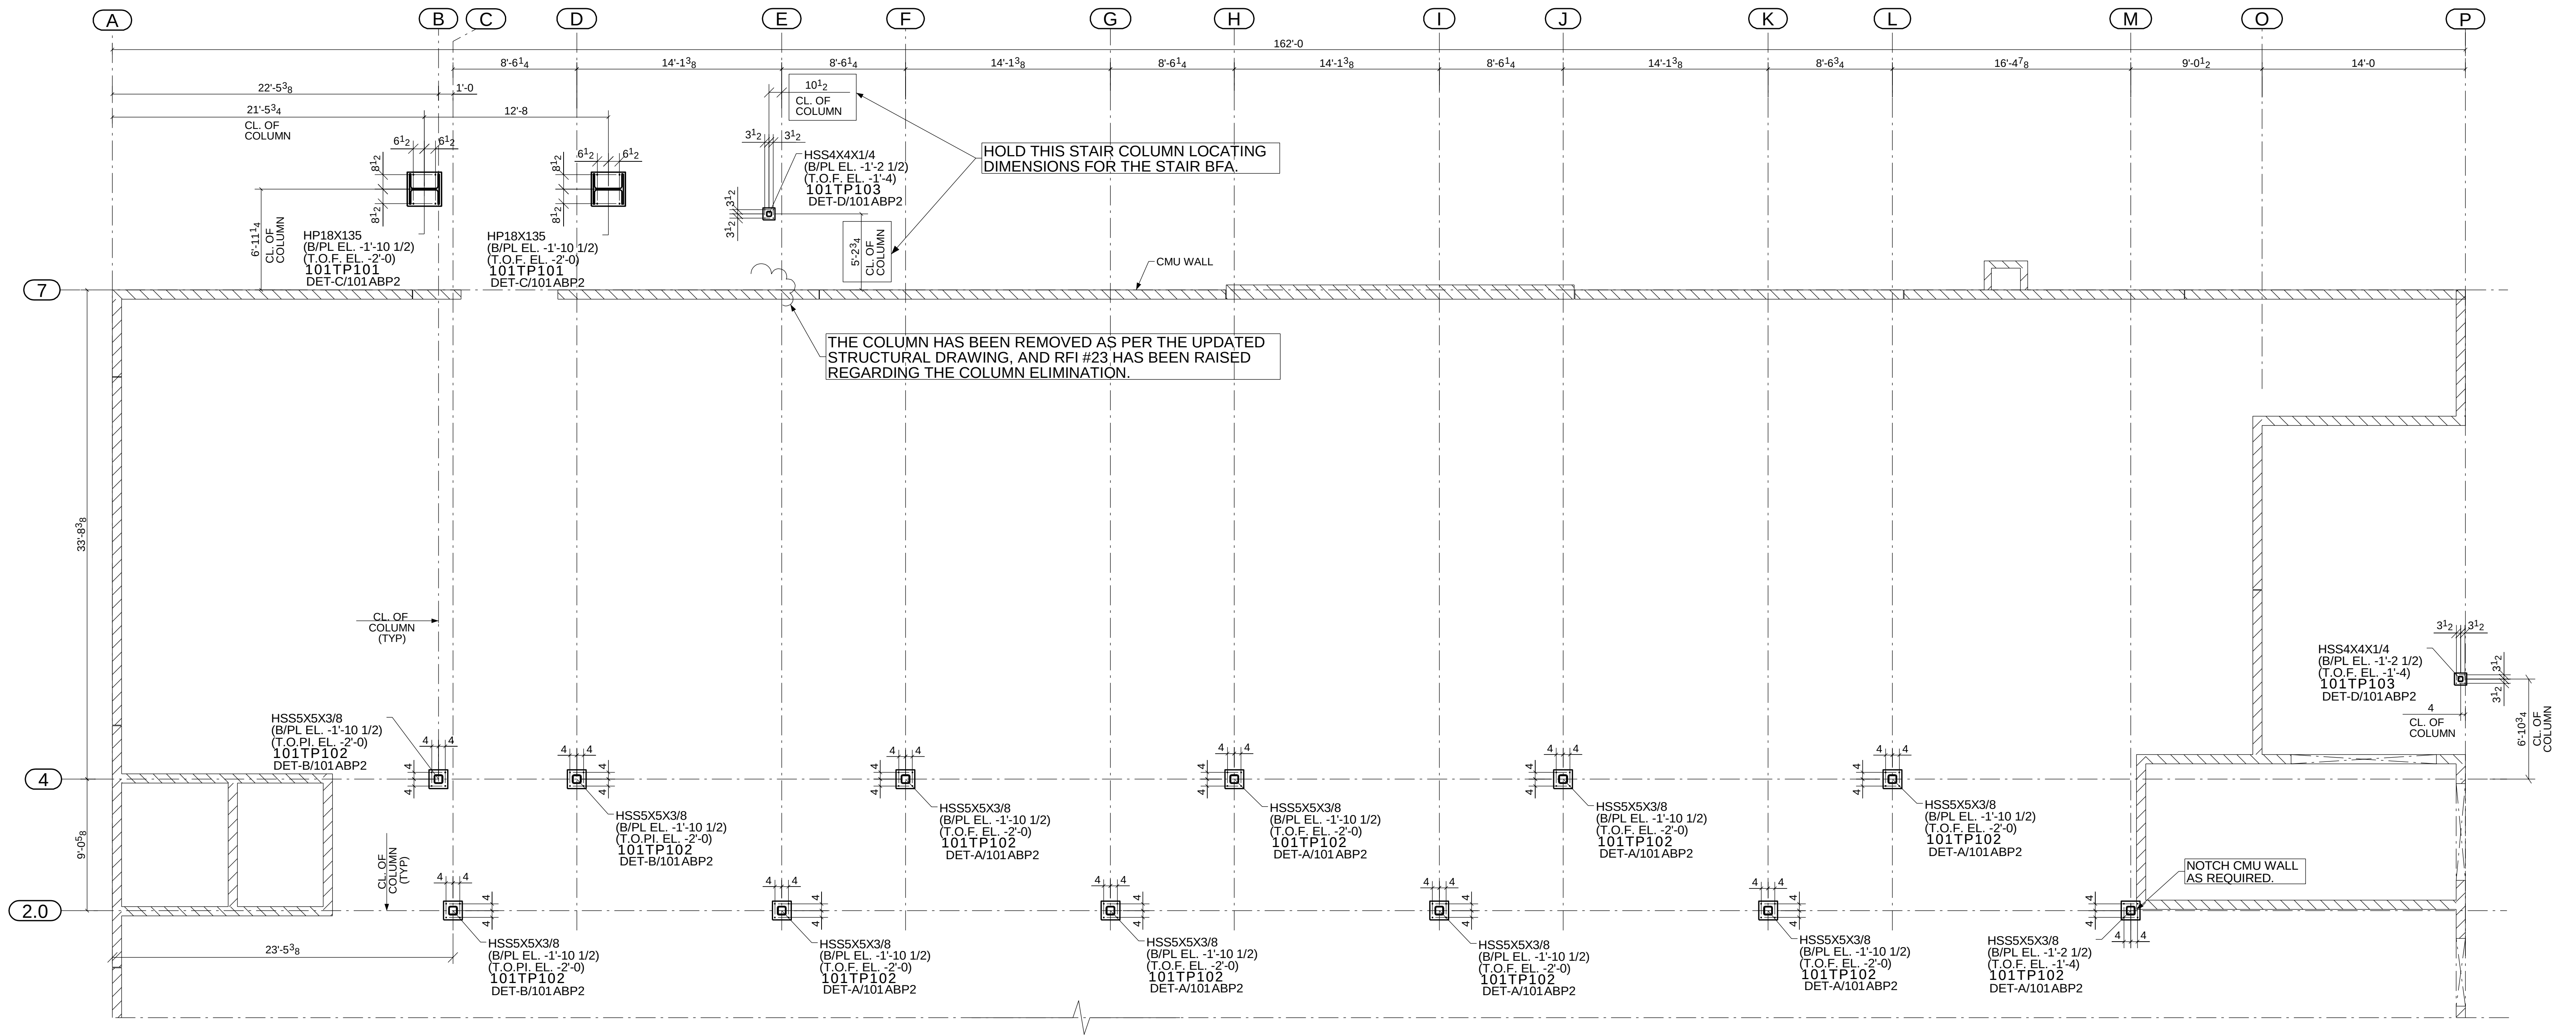

- These drawings have been through the review process and have been scrubbed according to comments made by the approving authorities and answers given to RFI questions. As such, S&H Steel acclaims that to the best of our ability to discern these drawings are in compliance with the contract documents.
- Two sets of these drawings will be delivered to the contractors field Office

Remarks: FOR CONSTRUCTION

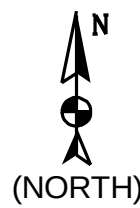

If enclosures are not as noted, please notify at once.
